
Contents

List of Illustrations	xi
List of Maps	xiii
Preface	xv
Part I The Decline of Victorian Britain, 1870–1914	1
1 Troubles in Economy and Society, 1870–1914	3
The Late-Victorian Economy, 1870–1900	4
Edwardian False Dawn, 1900–1914	9
Social Change, 1870–1914	10
Working-Class Culture, 1870–1914	15
Suggested Reading	21
2 Crisis of Confidence, 1870–1914	23
Scientific Naturalism	23
The New Liberalism	26
Socialism	29
Imperialism	35
Aestheticism	38
Suggested Reading	41
3 Revival on the “Celtic Fringe”	43
Wales: Industry, Nonconformity, and Nationalism	43
Scotland: Industry, Liberalism, and Identity	47
Ireland: From the Famine to the Home Rule Movement	49
Ireland: From Home Rule to Cultural Renaissance	54
Ireland: Cultural Renaissance to the Brink of Civil War	57
Suggested Reading	58
4 Politics and the State, 1867–1914	61
The 1867 Reform Act and the Structure of Politics	61
Gladstone and Disraeli	66
Home Rule and British Politics	70
The Rise of Labour	72
Triumphs and Trials of Liberalism, 1906–1914	75
Suggested Reading	82
5 Empire and Diplomacy in the Age of Imperialism, 1870–1914	85
Great Power Rivalries in the Late Nineteenth Century	85
British Power and Interests in the Late Nineteenth Century	87
Imperial Expansion, 1870–1900	90
The South African War, 1899–1902	96
The End of Isolation	99
The Drift into War, 1905–1914	101
Suggested Reading	105

Part II An Age of Total War, 1914–1945	107
6 The Great War, 1914–1918	109
The Course of War, 1914–1916	110
The Combat Experience	114
The Home Front	117
Wartime Politics	120
War's End, 1917–1918	124
Counting the Cost	129
Suggested Reading	131
7 The War and the Celtic Countries: Ireland Leaves the Union, 1914–1923	133
The Impact of the Great War on Scotland and Wales	133
Ireland and the Great War, 1914–1916	136
The Easter Rebellion, 1916	137
The Advent of Sinn Fein	139
Civil War with Britain and the Treaty of 1921	141
Civil War in Ireland, 1922–1923	143
Epilogue: Ireland, 1921–1939	145
Suggested Reading	147
8 Economy, Society, and Culture Between the Wars, 1919–1939	149
The British Economy Between the Wars	149
Society Between the Wars	154
Trade Unions, Class Conflict, and the General Strike of 1926	159
Popular Culture	160
High Culture	165
Suggested Reading	169
9 Politics, Power, and the Coming of War, 1919–1939	171
The Structure of Politics and Government	171
The Lloyd George Government, 1918–1922	176
MacDonald and Baldwin	178
British Power and Interests Between the Wars	183
Chamberlain and the Coming of War, 1937–1939	188
Suggested Reading	192
10 Britain and World War II	193
Standing Alone, September 1939 to June 1941	193
The Turn of the Tide, June 1941 to January 1943	200
The War at Home	202
Victory, January 1943 to August 1945	206
Counting the Costs	210
Suggested Reading	212
Part III Britain in the Postwar World, 1945–1990	215
11 Welfare, Affluence, and Consensus, 1945–1970	217
Building the Welfare State, 1945–1951	217
The Economy from Austerity to Affluence, 1945–1970	224
Affluent Society	228
The Culture of Austerity and Affluence	234
Suggested Reading	238

12 Illusions of Power: Politics and Foreign Relations, 1945–1970	241
The Structure of Government and Politics	241
Decline of the Labour Government, 1945–1951	245
The Tory Years, 1951–1964	251
Suez and After	254
Labour’s Recovery and Fall, 1964–1970	258
The General Election of 1970	262
Suggested Reading	263
13 Economic Decline, Nationality, and Devolution: The Celtic Countries, 1945–1980	265
Wales	265
Scotland	269
Ireland	273
Northern Ireland: The Tragic Province Under the Stormont Regime	275
Northern Ireland Under Direct Rule, 1972–1989	280
Suggested Reading	283
14 Thatcher’s Britain, 1970–1990	285
Economic Troubles and Industrial Strife in the 1970s	285
The Heath Government, 1970–1974	286
The Labour Governments, 1974–1979	290
Thatcher in Power	292
The Falklands War, April–June 1982	296
Reelection and the Second Term, 1983–1989	299
Thatcher’s Fall, 1987–1990	301
Thatcher’s Britain, the 1980s	303
Suggested Reading	306
15 Post-Thatcher Britain, 1990–Present: New Labour, Prosperity, and Imperial Blowback	309
The Troubled Times of John Major, 1990–1997	309
Tony Blair and the Rise of “New Labour”	312
Britain, Northern Ireland, and the Good Friday Agreement of 1998	316
The War in Iraq and the Fall of Tony Blair	321
The British Isles in the New Century: “Cool Britannia” or the End of Britain?	324
Suggested Reading	326
Appendixes	329
A Kings and Queens of Great Britain, 1870–2007	329
B Chief Cabinet Ministers, 1868–2007	331
Index	335